Communion Sunday

Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

During the on-line and conference call, Communion will be addressed and blessed. You are asked to make preparations to have juice/water and cracker/bread available to represent communion.

At your command everything changes. You O'Lord said, “let there be light” and the darkness in the world was lit up. Even your breath is powerful O' Lord, for you breathed humanity into existence. Almighty God, you take nothing and make it into something.

From the Pastor's Desk... Silence Is Golden....

We've always believed that the way you start something often dictates the way you finish.

No words needed

Sometimes by our own doing, there are things that happen, and sometimes you don't even have to open your mouth to be delivered, Wi-Fi your heart is in tune with God. Sadly, humanity will criticize and crush your spirit making it extremely difficult to get past your mistakes.

We have to realize that all ALL of us have messed up at one time or another. From the inside of Shiloh to the outside, we ALL carry specific sins with us daily.

The problem for many is that we have formed a global business in picking out and picking on people who have made bad choices.

If a person makes a bad choice it doesn't make them a bad person, but it's when the bad choice is made that all of the unlicensed judges appear.

Why do we illuminate the sins of others but consistently cover our sins? The world may never know, as this business has stood the test of time.

"People are good judges for your sins and good lawyers for their own sins."

In Luke 7 there was a moment of desperation, the woman in this passage found herself worshipping at the feet of Jesus.

Without Words, she poured out her life at his feet and in doing so received a new life and forgiveness for her sin.

Religion judges first, but we are to love first, because we do not know the struggles others are facing. Religion tries to put shame on you, but Jesus came to take the shame off of you.

"The days of religion are gone and days of relationship are upon us."

The world is desperate for change, and desperate for hope. We are called to be a church that loves first, and walks with people through their pain. No matter how long it takes to let God do his work in their lives. Let us be a church that always opens our hearts for the broken.
