Communion Sunday

Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our Faith without wavering; For he is Faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

During the on-line and conference call, Communion will be addressed and blessed. You are asked to make preparations to have juice/water and cracker/bread available to represent communion.

AUGUST 2023 ANNOUNCEMENTS

From the Pastor's Desk...

How Many of Us Have Them ? Part 2

Just like the shoes you wear for different occasions, many of you have friends you think you can wear to different occasions. Every friend you have is not for every place, situation or circumstance. You have to figure out which friends to put on for different occasions.

Some friends will only be with you when things are good, but won't be able to keep with you when seasons change. What friends do you have in your life that are prepared to travel with you for the long distance? There are some people in your life who only show up when you do well. Who are the people in your life who cannot celebrate with you, but only share in sorrow? Who are the friends in your administration? What kind of friend are you to yourself? Knowing this is going to help you reexamine your friendship and relationships In the backdrop of Luke 10:30-37, Jesus is talking to a lawyer who is asking the question: "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus responds by giving the analogy of the Good Samaritan. There are three different dimensions of friendship.

1. Those who need a friend
2. Those who could have been a friend
3. Those who will be a friend when a need arrives

There are some friends who you need to run from because they are not on your pace. They will not be able to handle you when life gets cold. There are other friends who are not prepared to travel with you because they like life where they are and are intimidated when they see you growing. You need friendship with somebody who recognizes you are different. In the Old Testament, God gave judgment on nations, tribes and families, but in the New Testament, Jesus began to save individuals. He is the example of what true friendship is. The people you call friends should measure up to this friendship. Who is in your cabinet? What position have you placed Jesus in? He is a friend who sticks closer than any brother. What type of friend are you?

Prayer for the Month

Lord God Almighty, you are consistent, constant, and unwavering. Your promises remain the same today and forever more.

I thank you that you don't change your mind and the promises in the Bible are my portion. Every promise you made is true. I am confident you are my shepherd that will help me find rest, peace, and refreshment to my soul. I am overjoyed that I do not have to fear evil or any plans of the enemy for You are with me; and Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. Thank you that You anoint my head with oil; and my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen.
