From the Pastor's Desk...

“YOU NEED HEALING”

Everybody does not hurt the same and everybody does not heal the same. Healing is as personal as it is different for every person. Yes, some folks would like you to believe that one size fits all or that naming it and claiming it will help you to fake it until you make it.

This nonsense is why we have too many Christians suffering silently in pews every Sunday. No, church is not the problem. If you eat at a restaurant and the food is not good or does not satisfy your needs but yet you keep paying, tipping and going back, that's not the restaurant's problem, that's your problem.

Healing is not for your kids, it's not for you mate, it's not for your ex, it's not for your mama or daddy, it's not so that folks won't think you lack faith or that you're not saved – healing is what you do to and for YOU.

The bible says, “May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Thessalonians 5:23, NIV). God wants you to be holistically healed, whole and capable of producing life through the power of the Holy Spirit, and the authority and dominion that you inherited through the blood of Jesus Christ.

When you desire for what God desires for you, when you make healing personal, you will not tolerate your destiny being robbed by your history. When you know that you know you are carrying a promise in your womb, you will embrace the “So What” spirit and guard your womb against unauthorized and illegal emotional intruders.

Forgive yourself for confusing your season with your lifetime and ask them to forgive you for being angry at a season for not being your lifetime. If you can love the wrong person that much, imagine how much more you can love the right one. So what they didn't apologize. You don't need their apology; you need your peace of mind. You can keep everybody in your prayers, but you cannot keep everybody in your life. Choose peace away from someone whose respect for you requires that you wait on an apology that you deserve.

Be blessed....

“

Lord Christ, you came into the world as one of us, and suffered as we do. As I go through the trials of life, help me to realize that you are with me at all times and in all things; that I have no secrets from you; and that your loving grace enfolds me for eternity. In the security of your embrace I pray. Amen.”

ASHWEDNESDAY
BEGINS THE SEASON OF LENT

Ash
Wednesday

FEBRUARY 22, 2023

Traditionally, Christians observe the 40 days of Lent, which starts on Ash Wednesday. Ash Wednesday is the time when you may decide on what you want to give up for Lent, or perhaps it's an opportunity to spend a quiet moment on some prayers. You can also mark the day by considering trying a new better habit. "Maybe you will volunteer more?"

No matter how you choose to observe, the most important part of the day is that it makes you feel close to Christ.
