From the Pastor's Desk...

THE “GOOD” IN GOODBYE...

Trees shed leaves when it's time to change seasons — for self-preservation. In other words, even the tree will shed leaves in order to save its life. But know this, when the tree sheds a leaf, not one leaf that falls to the ground kills the tree. When you let go to live, you preserve God's plan for your life.

Trees shed leaves; leaves don't shed trees**

Walking in divine truth after a breakup usually requires retraining our emotions to acknowledge, submit to and abide in the word of God. This is not hardly natural for most... it can be downright difficult without embracing the truth and walking in grace. Especially when the emotions we're trying to fight want what we don't need.

You don't have to fake it. Unless you have an iron brain, it takes a minute to recover from a love loss — even when it's the wrong person. But what we have to remember is this: Emotions that can say no to God's plans for our life or tell you to do anything that harms you or your destiny, are destructive — no matter how good they feel (2 Corinthians 10:3-4).

Cry if you have to, and even if you stumble on your way out, stick to God's plan for your life. When we're not walking in our divine truth, every season will look like a lifetime and if we're not careful, we'll exchange the truth for a lie.

When someone is not right for us or not ready for us, God steps in. It might look like a breakup but if God stepped in, it's a divine setup. God lets wrong things fall apart so that He can make right things fall together.

We have to see and acknowledge divine intervention to embrace the God in goodbye, and to ultimately recover from a God intervention. When God intervenes, He trusts you to choose your destiny over your destruction. When you walk with God, sometimes you have to lose to win!

Prayer Request

Lord,

You are the wind in my sails.
You guide me as I steer and find direction.
You give me the strength to keep on going.
You watch over me as I navigate stormy seas.
You are the harbour where I stop for rest.
You are my encourager when I lose hope.
You are the lighthouse that keeps my path safe.
You are with me always.
Thank you.
Amen.

MARCH 2023 ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lent Season

February 22 - April 6, 2023

Lent is a 40 day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. It's a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. During Lent, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Scripture; serving by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to seek a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully.
