Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

They Are Getting On My Nerves

In 2 Corinthians 12:7, Paul speaks of having a “thorn in the flesh.” He says he pleaded with the Lord three times that it would be removed from him, but it was not removed. Instead of taking away the thorn, God gave him these words: “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.”

You’ve probably felt like Paul sometimes—that there was something or somebody hindering you that you couldn’t get rid of. It didn’t matter how hard you tried; you just couldn’t shake it loose. It might not be what you want to hear, but it is actually a message of hope.

The bright side is when you are living with a thorn in the flesh. There’s nothing that can get at you—even if it comes from the devil himself—that doesn’t first have to pass through God’s fingers. The devil isn’t sovereign, only God is. Just as with Job, the devil can’t reach us without having permission from God.

Here’s the reality: At times God allows what the devil does to work for His purposes. Though they are at war with one another, God can use the devil’s efforts to bring about what he has in store for you and me. Usually He blocks the devil’s efforts, but sometimes he allows them to get through to us.

When that happens, it is part of God’s plan. For the sovereign God can take the evil and use it for good and mainly for your good. So let them or it get on your nerves because eventually it will elevate you to where you’re supposed to be...

"O God, the sources of all health: So fill my heart with faith in your love, that with calm expectancy
I may make room for your power to possess me,
and gracefully accept your healing."

that you may be in good health,
as it goes well with your soul."
