Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Taking My Trials In The Trash

Tuesday is my day. I don't know your home, but Tuesday is trash day at the Barner house. So, every Tuesday morning, I have the teenagers take the trash out by the curb in plenty of time for them to pick it up.

I don't want to miss them because then we will be stuck with smelly, stinky trash for another week. But you know what I have noticed about Chester trash day? I have never had a trashman come to my front door and ring the doorbell, asking me where my trash is. If it's not out there by the curb, they just move on to the next house because it's not their responsibility to bring it to the place of service.

The same thing applies spiritually, in that you need to take the step of taking your emotional and spiritual trash to God.

It's up to us to get it out there. Just like it's up to you to carry your burden to Jesus. He says, "Come." He doesn't say to wait inside the confines of your own pain for Him to show up and take it all away.

You need to take the step of taking your emotional and spiritual trash to Him. When you carry your burden to Jesus:

- He will give you rest.
- He will take the emotional pain away.
- He will remove the stench causing you to remain awake when you should be asleep.
- He will do all of this, but you must do something first—you must carry your emotional trash to the one who is able to handle it.

God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen.

The LORD protects and preserves them— they are counted among the blessed in the land— he does not give them over to the desire of their foes. The LORD sustains them on their sickbed and restores them from their bed of illness." Psalm 41:2-3
