DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE
OF ME
COMMUNION SUNDAY

I pray that February will be our month filled with Good News, Many Blessings, New Opportunities,
Healing & Lots
Of Love.

Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

During the on-line and conference call, Communion will be addressed and blessed. You are asked to make preparations to have juice/water and cracker/bread available to represent communion.

WAITING IN FEAR

Why does God take so long to answer our deepest most heartfelt prayers? To develop perseverance in us. It would be too easy if God answered all our prayers the first time we prayed to them. Not only would we take God for granted, we would also develop a shallow faith.

I have a good friend who is stuck in a difficult job situation. She works with a colleague who has a reputation for being an easygoing nice guy. "But he's not like that behind the scenes," she says. Every time she has a good idea, he either steals it or complains to the boss. And since his job is more important than hers, he always wins. He also uses threats and intimidation to get his way. He thinks only of himself and how he can get ahead, and he doesn't mind being ruthless if that's what it takes to get what he wants.

Sound familiar? Every office probably has a person who answers to that description. When I asked my friend if she was planning on leaving her job, she gave a very wise answer: "I know that God put me here and gave me the talent to do my job. If he wants to move me, that's fine, but I'm not going to try to do it myself. I'm sure God can use me in this position and I want to learn everything he is trying to teach me."

Here is a woman whose faith is growing stronger through a difficult situation. Every day she is being given new opportunities to trust God and to respond graciously to an unkind coworker. Meanwhile, she prays for God to work in her and through her and, if necessary, to change her situation.

My own feeling is that God will eventually answer her prayers by either moving her on to a new job or by removing the other person. But that may not happen for months or years, and until then, my friend is developing many godly qualities as she patiently waits on the Lord.

What are you waiting for God to do and most importantly, what will you do in 2024?

CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH

“ History has shown us that courage can be contagious and hope can take on a life of its own. ”

Michelle Obama

SBC 2024 Theme: "The Year of Restoration"

"For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds. saith the Lord: because they called thee an Outcast, saying, "This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after."
Jeremiah 30:17 KJV

FEBRUARY 14TH

Ash Wednesday begins the 40 days of lent, a time when we remember that Jesus spent 40 days in the desert fasting and resisting temptation. The first day of Lent is Ash Wednesday. On this special day of reflection, The ashes symbolize our mortality – "Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return."
