Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised; And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

JULY Blessings

May your Faith in God bring Peace, Hope and Love to your heart and everlasting Joy to your Soul.
May you find reasons to smile & rejoice every precious moment, And may the blessings of the Lord shine upon you today and every day of this

Shiloh Baptist Church & Always.

ANGER

We live in angry times. We see anger expressed most every day: driving on the highway, watching a drama on TV, or hearing the news.

Some of us grew up in an angry home, where conflict never resolved and it escalated to anger. Others of us heard anger from the pulpit each week.

The reality is that being angry is a human emotion, because even the word says be angry and sin not. Even though the Bible never calls anger a sin, often times the way we express anger can be sinful.

Scripture has a lot to say about anger, including how best to defuse our own anger as well as someone else's—which shows that it can be done!

Learning what's behind our anger helps us unlock underlying emotions. And when the fear of anger is removed from a relationship, the freedom to work through conflict can produce immense satisfaction and understanding.

All of us have the Incredible Hulk on the inside of us, our power shows when we deal with the issues in a sensible way, as they arise.

Let the Lord use these resources to help move your relationships toward unity as you seek to train this powerful emotion.

Rev. Marwin E. Barner Jr.

PRAYER FOR OUR SICK & SHUT-IN

Lord, I ask for complete restoration and wholeness for all who are sick & shut-in. May Your healing power flow through them, bringing relief from pain, restoration of health, and a sense of well-being. May Your Holy Spirit shine upon them, bringing forth miracles and blessings in their life.

"Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security."
