Hebrews 10:23-25

Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised;
And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together,
as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much
the more, as ye see the day approaching.

What's Your Focus?

Life has a way of throwing adversity at us at the most inopportune times.

It's unreasonable to expect our lives to always be smooth and free of trouble and trauma; we therefore must be prepared to handle situations as they arise.

Some people seem to create dramatic situations where there are none because of the way they think; however, as free moral agents, we have the choice of whether or not to accept the drama.

We avoid turbulence and find peace by allowing the Holy Spirit to lead us in this area, point out our problematic thinking and behavior, and help us correct it.

Trouble can surface anytime, and we can become exhausted by constant, ongoing drama in our lives and in the lives of others.

Some people attract drama to them like a magnet; it finds them because they choose it.

We must ask ourselves if we really trust God to help reduce drama in our lives and sometimes it's self-inflicted.

There are ways of dealing with drama without getting caught up in it and making it worse.

Learn to seek the power of peace, and in today's times peace is paramount over everything.
